

Día de los Muertos Concert

A joint concert by Sones de México Ensemble and the MSU Graduate Brass Quintet with original arrangements by Prof. Ricardo Lorenz, MSU College of Music

Celebrating the 25th Anniversary of the Julian Samora Research Institute

Thursday, October 30, 2014

7:30pm

Cook Recital Hall
MSU Music Building
MSU Campus

Sones de México Ensemble is Chicago's premier music group specializing in Mexico's folk music and dance styles, including huapango, son istmeño, gusto, chilena, and son jarocho, among others. The twice-Grammy-nominated Ensemble will demonstrate various styles of music and will be joined on stage by the MSU Graduate Brass Quintet.

Free and Open to the Public

Sponsored by the Julian Samora Research Institute at Michigan State University, the Office for Inclusion and Intercultural Initiatives, and the MSU College of Music