

Julian Samora Research Institute

Presents

COMMUNITY AUTHORS SYMPOSIUM SERIES: “Human Trafficking, Markets and Exploitation”

Featuring

Nic Mihailoff, Author of The Sportsman
and JSRI Community Affiliate

with comments by

Jeremy Norwood, Assistant Professor,
Spring Arbor University

and

Ron DeHaas, Founder, Covenant Eyes

Thursday, October 10, 2013

6:30 PM

Room 122, Berkey Hall

Michigan State University

A novel in which a young Latino in the United States overcomes incredible odds and becomes a hero by being in the wrong place at just the right time.

Along with a small group of outdoor enthusiasts the hero and a clandestine team rescue children from the slave trade operating in Louisiana and Michigan. Our hero accomplishes this while he falls in love with an undercover agent, brings down a crime organization and eludes death.

This high octane adventure helps establish the positive persona of the Latino influence in the fabric of America. It's been said, whoever tells the best story, shapes culture, and this story does just that.

This Event is Free and Open to the Public

For more information please call (517) 432-1317