

Transnational Labor Symposium Series

Julian Samora Research Institute

“Immigration Relief Information Session”

Interested in the provisions of DACA and DAPA?

On November 20 and 21, 2014, President Obama presented his “immigration accountability executive action” to the nation. His actions constitute a series of measures that provide temporary immigration protections for many unauthorized parents of U.S. citizens and lawful permanent residents, provide technical regulatory proposals to address outdated visa provisions, and expand the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals Programs. What then are the provisions of Deferred Action for Parental Accountability & Expanded Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals Programs?

Come learn about the provisions of expanded DACA and DAPA on

Thursday, January 29, 2015
Holden Hall, RM G011
6:30 PM – 8:00 PM

Presenters:

Diego Bonesatti, Legal Service Director
Michigan United

A Spartan, Diego Bonesatti has spent his entire career working with immigrants and for immigrant rights.

Aida Cuadrado, Director
Action of Greater Lansing

Aida Cuadrado leads the efforts of interfaith partners in promoting systemic changes to improve lives of Lansing residents

Sponsored by

Julian Samora Research Institute, Office for Inclusion and Intercultural Initiatives, Michigan United, Action of Greater Lansing

