

No Human Being is Illegal

Discussion on Immigration Policies and Politics

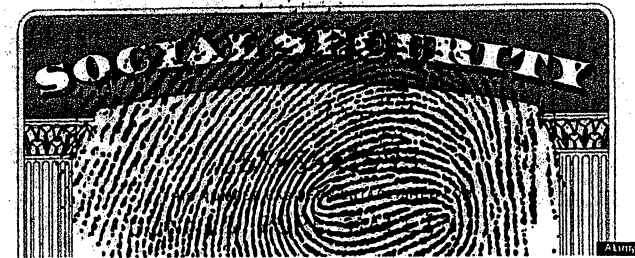

Join the ACLU of Michigan for a discussion on immigrant rights. The ACLU has been one of the nation's leading advocates for the rights of immigrants, refugees and non-citizens, challenging unconstitutional laws and practices, countering the myths upon which many of these laws are based.

No Human Being is Illegal

Monday, September 16 at 7 p.m.

UICA - Urban Institute for Contemporary Arts

2 Fulton West, Grand Rapids, MI 49503

When the government has the power to deny legal rights and due process to a vulnerable group, everyone's rights are at risk. The Western Branch of Michigan's ACLU invites you to join us for a discussion on immigration policy and politics.

This event is free and open to the public.
