

“PUEBLOS
ORIGINARIOS: USOS Y COSTUMBRES”

GABRIELA
LEYVA MÉNDEZ

Friday, May 24th 2019
10:30am – 12:00pm
Michigamme Room
in
Kellogg Hotel & Conference Center
219 S Harrison Rd.
East Lansing, MI 48824

Join us as we welcome Gabriela Leyva Méndez, professor of political science at the Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México (UNAM) in Mexico City, to speak on indigenous cultures in Mexico. Gabriela is a champion for the rights of indigenous women.

MA in Social Sciences with a specialization in Municipal Development
El Colegio Mexiquense

BA in International Relations
Universidad Iberoamericana

Fluent in Tzeltal and Spanish

---

Representative of Mexico at the Third International Conference of Young Leaders in Canada, 1996

Member of the National Indigenous Congress, 1996

Current member of the Indigenous Council of Government.
Award for the Best Social Service

Sponsored by the Julian Samora Research Institute, the Center for Gender in Global Context, and the Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies

Free and Open to the Public