

Latino-White Gaps in Ninth Graders' Mathematics Achievement Levels

Have you ever wondered what factors influence the math performance of students? Why are there gaps among students in math performance? Join us for this presentation and learn what the math achievement gaps are and why they persist. We look at the Latino-White gap in which Latino students have lower levels of mathematics achievement than White students using data from the Department of Education. Come hear our findings.

Presented by: Jean Kayitsinga & Rubén Martinez

Date/Time: 4/7/2018 10:00-10:30 AM

Location: Biomedical and Physical Sciences Building, Room 1420

